

7. Following the DRB's examination, the Applicant, through its designated legal counsel, if any, shall cross-examine the Interested Person's direct witnesses.
8. Following the presentation of each party's direct case, and after cross-examination, the Applicant and Interested Persons may present any rebuttal testimony, with Board questions to follow and reasonable cross-examination by Interested Persons permitted at the discretion of the DRB.
9. Except upon request and for good cause shown, all cross-examination by the parties — whether the Applicant or the Interested Persons — shall be conducted by one attorney for each represented party. If an Interested Person is not represented, he or she may conduct cross-examination for themselves, but in no case shall multiple representatives of a party cross-examine the same witness. Cross-examination shall be conducted in a manner that is respectful of all persons and should not go beyond the subject matter of the direct examination and matters affecting witness credibility.
10. Hearing time should be devoted to the presentation of facts relevant to the application and the parties' respective legal arguments. Legal arguments going to the merits of the application should be made in writing for consideration by the DRB during its deliberations.
11. All parties will have a full and fair opportunity to present their case. Evidentiary issues will be addressed in a manner consistent with the DRB's Rules of Procedure and Chapter 36 of Title 24, with the DRB Chair or Vice-Chair ruling on the relevance and scope of the evidence as necessary and appropriate.

DATED at Stowe, Vermont, this 4 day of June, 2024.

Drew Clymer,
Stowe DRB Chair
